IMPLICIT BIAS:
We've all got it – WHAT can we do about it?

- Are you curious to learn more about implicit bias, but perhaps reluctant to raise the topic with friends or colleagues?
- Could your workplace or community benefit from heightened awareness of the ways implicit bias affects our relationships and decision-making?

The Ithaca Area Collaborative Law Professionals cordially invite you to attend a free community workshop by nationally known speaker

David A. Hoffman

who is a Collaborative Law attorney, mediator and arbitrator at Boston Law Collaborative, LLC. He is also on the faculty at Harvard Law School where he teaches courses on Diversity and Dispute Resolution; Legal Profession: Collaborative Law; and Mediation.

This free workshop will help participants have a deeper understanding of the implicit biases we all carry and specific strategies to manage them.

Please Join Us:

Wednesday, June 13, 2018, 7pm
Cinemapolis, 120 E. Green Street, Ithaca

There will be refreshments following the presentation

This program is offered to the Ithaca Community by the Ithaca Area Collaborative Law Professionals, marking 15 years of Collaborative Practice. The IACLP is a group of lawyers, financial professionals and mental health professionals who help people resolve their legal issues without resorting to court.
