Pledge

I, _____ pledge to comply with and to promote the spirit and written word of the principles of Collaborative Law as set forth in the Participation Agreement.

I will not participate in a collaborative case where all professionals have not gone through the 2-day Basic Introductory Collaborative Law training. Rare exceptions may be granted, allowing the use of a non-collaboratively trained professional (legal, financial, or mental health professional). All exceptions must be approved by all the professionals and participants in the case. Additionally, the exception must be approved by two IACLP who are not active participants in the case.

I understand that a violation of the Principles of Collaborative Law may result in my no longer being a member of the IACLP.

I certify that I meet the minimum requirements for membership in the IACLP for my profession.

I pledge to uphold the continuing requirements of membership in the IACLP during my membership, including attendance at monthly meetings at least once during each quarter (i.e. once every three months),

The training(s) I attended in the past year: _____

*If applicable: I am a current member of the IACP and my dues are paid by: _____
